Serial No.

Petition of 25.9.30 from messrs. B. Lingarajiah, B. Kashiri Ramappa Naik & Dodda Madikere Naik praying for reconsideration of orders rejecting the lapsed pension of Easwaramma Nagathi of Chitaldrug Palliyar Family.

1) In G.O. of 26.7.1928 the petitioners claim to the Palliyar Pension of Rs 60-0-4 drawn by late Easwaramma Nagathi was ordered to be lapsed on the ground that the petitioners are all in receipt of pensions & they are distant relations to the deceased.

2) Now they urge that these Palliyar Pensions are hereditary grants made in lieu of Palleyar lands resumed by Govt. & such pensions have been continued in their family to far more distant relatives — vide G.O. of 22.6.1895.

3) They further state that ~~their~~ they were not given an opportunity to explain their case before Govt. while rejecting their claim.

4) Now they pray that their Counsel (Mr. S Ramaswamy) may be heard before final orders are passed in the matter.

5) Submitted for orders.

S&R 111-32-2

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE. AT BANGALORE.

Petition No. of 1930-31.

Petitioners:

1. B.Lingarajiah, son of Parusuram Naik
2. B.Kasturi Rangappa Naik, son of Murigeppa Naik
3. Doddamedekeri Naik, son of Kallappa Naik.

All Pallegars of Chjtaldroog, Care of their Advocate, S.Ramaswamy, B.A., LL.B., 83, Chickpet, Bangalore City.

Duplicate 25/9/32

The humble petition of the petitioners above-named most respectfully showeth:-

1. The petitioners are the descendants of Chicka Medikeri Naik who ruled as the Pallegar of Chitaldroog up to the year 1778 A.D. and was taken prisoner by Hyder Ali in or about 1779.

2. When Chicka Medekeri Naik and Parusaram Naik were murdered after being imprisoned, their cousin Doddamedekeri Naik who afterwards became famous as Kotchi Medekeri Naik took service under Hyder Ali and was by him sent to quell the rebellion of the Moplahs in Calicu and remained there as Bakshigiri under Hyder Ali.

3. Some time later as the relations between Kotchi Medekeri Naik and Tippu Sultan who succeeded Hyder Ali were not of the best, Kotchi Medekeri Naik suspecting foul play from Tippu Sultan suddenly left Calicut and went for protection to Kirita Rama Raja of Cochin.

4. In or about the year 1799 when the British waged war against Tippu Sultan Kotchi Medekeri Naik exhibited indefatigable valour and superhuman endurance in helping the British by supplying food and fodder to their army on their march to Seringapatam via Jangama, Tirunamale and periapatna, and on the fall of Seringapatam the British reinstated H.H.The Maharaja Mummudi Krishnaraja Wadiyar on the throne of Mysore and the Pallepet of Chitaldroog was included in the territories of Mysore.

5. In consideration of the services rendered to the British troops in their war against Tippu Sultan and the loyalty of the Pallegars of Chitaldroog to the original rulers of Mysore Kotchi Medekeri Naik was in May 1802 promised by Dewan Purniah on behalf of the Maharaja of Mysore that he would be given the Pallepet of Chitaldroog on the country regaining the peace and prosperity which it had lost by the clash for power and numerous wars which devastated Mysore.

6. As the country was in or about 1802 in a very troubled state Kotchi Medekeri Naik was being given a pension in liew of his Pallepet and he was also honoured by Khillats on auspicious occasions.

7. For reasons too numerous to mention the Pallepet of Chitaldroog was never given back to Kotchi Medekeri Naik but the pension which was being given to him was continued to his descendents as a hereditary pension (vide No.

Fl.353/48 & A 165-11-12 dated 11th July 1912).

8. The descendents of Kotchi Medekeri Maik have been and are enjoying the pensions given to them and on the death of any of the pensioners the pension was being divided among the nearest relatives of the deceased.

9. Up to the year 1916 one (No.16) Bharamappa Naik of the Pallegar family of Chitaldroog was being granted a pension of Rs 60 0 4 and on his death without issue, the pension was continued to his wife Mangamma Nagathi for her maintenances. The pension was continued to Mangamma Nagathi till her death in 1925 and thereafter the pension of G.Bharamappa Naik was continued to Eswaramma Nagathi she being the mother of the deceased G. Bharamappa Naik for her maintenance.

10. On the death of Eswaramma Nagathi in the year 1927 the petitioners herein being the nearest relatives to the deceased Bharamappa Naik became entitled to the pension that was being given to Bharamappa Naik.

11. The first petitioner herein is the natural brother of the deceased G.Bharamappa Naik and nephew of Bharamappa Naik after Bharamappa Naik's adoption by Kashi Rangappa Naik. The petitioners 2 and 3 herein are first cousins of the deceased Bharamappa Naik.

12. The petitioners are the nearest relatives of the deceased G.Bharamappa Naik as shown in the geneological tree hereunto annexed and are entitled to the pension that was being granted to him.

13. The Government by its order No. FL 746/ S &

100-27-6 intimated to the petitioners on their applying for the distribution of the pension among them that the pension that was being granted to G. Bharamappa Naik had lapsed to Government as he had died without leaving any near relatives.

14. The pension would have been in the ordinary course granted to the petitioners herein if Eswaramma Nagathi and Mangamma Nagathi were living with the petitioners and the mere fact that they were not living together cannot deprive the petitioners of their right to claim the pension that was being granted to the deceased G.Bharamappa Naik.

15. The petitioners most respectfully submit that they are very near relatives of the deceased and as the pension is granted to them as a hereditary pension in liew of their Pallepet lands it cannot be lapsed to Government. The Government have as a matter of fact continued the pension to far more distant relatives of a deceased pensioner (vide P & A 30/ G 357-92 dated 22-6-1895) on former occasions.

16. The petitioners had previously petitioned the Government in the matter and they were rejected without the petitioners being given an opportunity to put their case and press their claims before the Government.

17. The petitioners therefore pray that the order of the Government ordering the lapse to Government of the pension of the deceased G.Bharamappa Naik may kindly be set aside and the pension from the date of the death of Eswaramma Nagathi acrued up to date of payment be divided among the petitioners they being the nearest relatives of the deceased.

The petitioners further pray that they may be given an opportunity to be heard before any orders are passed on the petition.
